ABOUT PRAA

Pound Reform Alliance Australia Inc. (PRAA) was founded in 2012 to advocate for an end to the convenience killing of healthy and treatable pets in pounds and shelters, and to promote progressive approaches to animal management nation-wide.

OUR ACTIVITIES

- Research and analysis of Australia's pound system and euthanasia statistics, including sourcing of extensive information under Freedom of Information; from whistleblowers; and a range of other sources
- Engagement with local councillors and council staff regarding the performance of their pounds or pound service providers
- Networking with like-minded advocacy groups to develop new collaborative initiatives, particularly in regard to seeking better outcomes for homeless cats
- Providing advice and information to concerned individuals who wish to lobby for change in their own community
- Establishment of Resident Action Groups with interested community members
- Evaluation of international animal management models to identify best-practice examples that could be applied to the Australian environment
- Preparation of submissions to Victorian local councils regarding their Domestic Animal Management Plans (DAMPs) which outline the services, programs and policies they plan to put in place over the next four years to manage dog and cat issues in their community
- Organising the annual Stop Killing Our Pound Pets rally.
